

MSY Company quality policy statement

Mavara Salamat Yas - a leading company in the field of dermatology, aesthetics, orthopedics, and ophthalmology – manufactures health-oriented and pharmaceutical products in oral, injectable, and topical forms by using cutting-edge technologies, which is aimed to have an active presence in regional and international markets and to meet the needs of the country in order to accomplish defined visions and increase the satisfaction of company's beneficiaries.

Also, Mavara Salamat Yas Company is committed to preserving the national capital by considering fundamental values and human dignity, and has considered the following goals as the basic principles of its activities in all fields:

- Production of quality pharmaceutical products according to up-to-date standards after identifying the needs of consumers and related specialist physicians.
- Commitment to continuous improvement of processes and procedures to improve the quality of products for the satisfaction of users as well as manufacturing and supplying products on time according to the needs of society.
- Optimal use of resources and experts' potential in the country's pharmaceutical fields in order to localize the world's latest technologies.
- Creating a healthy and organizational workplace through strengthening mutual trust, developing teamwork, promoting staff morale by engaging motivated staff, promoting specific culture and knowledge, nurturing talents, enhancing employees' knowledge, and valuing their creativity and innovation.
- Constant study, research, and development to meet the current and future needs of the country for a variety of health-oriented products with the attitude of progressing public health.

In order to achieve the above policies and sustainable development, the management of this company has designed and established an integrated quality management system based on the international standard ISO 9001:2015 requirements.

Morteza Hashem

CEO